ASSOCIATION

Organization Adjourns Af-

for the Year

HOLD ROYAL BANQUET

Members Guests of Newport News Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company—Inspect Plant.

Newport News, Va., July 19.—Officers of the Newport News Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company tendered the members of the Virginia Press Association a banquet at the Warwick Hotel Saturday afternoon, closing the twenty-seventh annual meeting, which has been one of unusual social activities, intermingled with some business of rather an important nature to every member of the association.

The main business of the closing session was the election of officers, the report of the nominating committee being made unanimous. The officers are: president, Robert S. Barrett, of Alexandria; vice-presidents, Walter E. Addison, of Lynchburg; R. A. Anderson, of Marion; W. S.
Copeland, of Newport News; W. A.
Land of Blackstone; Allen Potts, of Richmond; secretary, James L. Hart, of Farmville; treasurer, O. W. Eanes, of Newcastle; historian, Bertha Gray, Robinson, of Orange; chaplain, W. R.
Kennedy, of Lexington; national committeeman, George O. Greene, of Clifton Forge; delegates to the National Editorial Association, W. Mc Donald Lee, Irvington; A. H. Taylor, Danville; John Stewart Bryant, Richmond; Charles B. Cooke, Richmond; J. H. Lindsay, Charlottesville.

Mr. Barrett expressed his appreciation of the honor and confidence conferred by the election, and said he was going to work for the upbuilding of the association. An executive committee will be named by President Barrett at a later date.

Stanton invited the association to meet there next year. The matter was referred to the executive committee to make selection at the proper time.

A tour of the shipyard under the personal escort of Vice-president Homer L. Ferguson and officials of the company occupied the morning hours, and after an hour's rest the members gathered in the Warwick Hotel for the banquet, the length of which caused the proposed river ride to be abandoned.

Host Homer L. Ferguson introduced Colonel W. S. Copeland as toastmaster. Harry L. Houston, candidate for Speaker of the House, was introduced, and said he was sorry he could not dive into politics, but contented himself by telling stories on Colonel Copeland. Mr. Houston paid his respects to Secretary of the Navy Daniels by saying "Nero crucified the Jews, but Josephus Daniels crucified the crews."

President Barrett complimented the citizens of Newport News upon their entertainment of the visitors.

FRANK GROWS WORSE

Condition of Convict Now Said to be Critical.

Milledgeville, Ga., July 19.—Leo M.
Frank took a sudden turn for the worse early today and reports from the State prison farm, where Frank's throat was cut by a fellow convict yesterday, are against his recovery.
Two Atlanta surgeons have left for Milledgeville to attempt to save Frank's life.

The prisoner began to grow worse at 8 o'clock this morning, after passing a favorable night. His temperature increased from 99.1-2 to 102.2-5 and the wound across his neck is swelling.

Frank is suffering much pain but is bearing it with fortitude. He is less hopeful of his own recovery, however, and his manner is depressed.

STORM THREATENS FLOOD.

One Peril Passes by Only to be Followed by Another as Rivers Rise to Danger Points.

Kansas City, July 19.—Two hours after the Missouri and Kansas rivers ceased rising yesterday because of heavy rains last week, a terrific rain and windstorm swept eastern Kansas, western Missouri and southern Nebraska and renewed fears of a disastrous flood. The local weather bureau immediately issued a general warning to the residents and business firms in the east and west bottoms of Kansas City that another serious rise in the Missouri and Kansas rivers might be expected.

The rain fell in torrents here, driven by a wind that jumped from 14 to 54 miles an hour in five minutes. Thousands of Sunday pleasure-seekers were caught by the storm.
Many signs and trees were blown down, but no serious damage was reported. At Topeka almost two inches of rain fell in an hour and local streams were reported out of their banks. The rainfall was heavy along the Missouri River valley northwest into Nebraska. St. Joseph reported a fall of nearly one and a half inches. The wind tore down trees and chimneys there.

The Missouri reached a crest here today of 28 feet, which, with two exceptions, was a foot higher than any previous mark. Several blocks of the residence district and a large part of the industrial territory of the east bottoms were under water; but as the rise was gradual the damage was not great. No accurate estimate of the effect of today's rain will have on the river situation was possible tonight, owing to demoralized wire communication.

ITALY'S KING UNDER FIRE

Unmindful of Shells as He Watches Daring Wire-Cutters at Work

Udine, Italy, July 19.—King Victor Emmanuel recently stood his ground while he and a group of officers were the target of Austrian gunners, refusing to retire to a place of safety because he was interested in watching a young Italian soldier who was trying to cut the wire entanglements in front of the Austrian trenches. The King marked the progress of the wire-cutter attentively from the time the latter left the Italian lines. The ruler, and the officers about him attracted the attention of the Austrians, who for a time shelled them.
The soldier accomplished his task and returned unharmed.

Bombs Found in Coal.

Trenton, N. J., July 15.—A bomb was found late yesterday afternoon in a carload of coal consigned to the Conard Steamship Company in New York.

The car, over the Pennsylvania Railroad had been damaged in transit from the coal region of Pennsylvania.
When it reached the Morrisville yards it was decided to transfer the coal to another car. The coal had to pass down a chute and the bomb was seen as it slid among the iron way.
The infernal machine is made of hard tin, and is shaped like a cartridge. It is twenty inches long and ten inches thick, tapering down to about six inches. It contains a black substance and weighs five pounds.

SUBMARINE SINKS
ITALIAN CRUISER

Giuseppe Garibaldi. Attacked by Undersea Craft South of Ragusa

MANY OF CREW PERISH

Disappeared Fifteen Minutes After Being Struck—Carried Crew of Five Hundred and Fifty Men.

Vienna (via Berlin wireless), July 19.—An Austrian submarine this morning torpedoed and sank the Italian cruiser Giuseppe Garibaldi south of Ragusa. The cruiser sank in fifteen minutes.

The Giuseppe Garibaldi is listed by some naval registers as an armored cruiser; by others as a battleship.
She carried a normal complement of 550 men. If she sank within fifteen minutes it is probable that a large part of her crew was lost.

Ragusa is a fortified seaport of Austria-Hungary in Dalmatia, on a peninsula of the Adriatic sea, thirty-eight miles northwest of Cattaro.

VILLA TROOPS ROUTED.

Carranza Force Victorious in Battle in Mountain Pass West of Agua Prieta.

Douglas, Ariz., July 19.—After a six-hour battle in Anavacachi Pass, west of Agua Prieta, General Calles, Carranza commander in Sonora, was reported late yesterday to have decisively defeated Villa troops under Gen. Jose Maria Acosta. The Calles force was said to number 3,000, while Acosta's was reported as half that number.

In a message received here by A.
Garduno, Consul for Carranza, from General Calles at Amorita, 20 miles west of Agua Prieta, the Villa troops were reported as fleeing in all directions.

The message stated that the battle began at 6 o'clock yesterday morning.
The Villa forces were strongly internched in the pass and for five hours held against cannon and rapid-fire guns.

KILL TURKS FOR TREASON

Commanders Have Officers Shot for Investigating Anti-German Plot

Rome, July 19.—Fifty Turkish officers in the garrison at Adrianople have been shot for investigating an anti-German plot, according to Salonika dispatches printed by the Tri-buna today.

LEAP FROM AUTO MAY KILL

Woman's Skull Fractured Jumping From Runaway Car.

Scranton, Pa., July 19.—Mrs. C. B.
Weidow was probably fatally injured when she jumped from a runaway auto yesterday afternoon, and fractured her skull against a curb-stone. John Curry, owner of the car, and William Morris, sustained minor injuries when they leaped. The car was descending a steep hill when the brakes refused to work.

STORM TODAY.

Shortly before three o'clock this afternoon a heavy rainstorm, which was accompanied by some hail, struck this city and vicinity. There was considerable thunder and lightning.

SEES FALL OF KAISER.

German Empire Modernized Feudal-ism, Says Perry Belmont.

Washington, July 19.—The downfall of the German imperial Government, which he characterizes as "modernized feudalism, heir inform and spirit to the despotisms of the iniquitous Holy Alliance," is predicted by Perry Belmont, former chairman of the House Committee on Foreign Affairs, in a statement issued today by the Navy League.

Mr. Belmont declares that the Monroe Doctrine, embodying, as it does, the ideal that strong nations shall keep their hands off the territory and affairs of weaker states, has become the universal expression of the aspirations of all free governments, wherever situated. The embodiment of that ideal in popular sentiment among educated and enlightened people all over the world has become one of the strongest forces working toward national stability and lasting peace, according to Mr.
Belmont.

Continuing, Mr. Belmont characterizes the German Empire as a "federated union of states, in form only self-governing, of which the economic system is in form only democratic.
The whole industrial, intellectual and commercial life of the German people is subordinate to the reactionary influence of the Hohenzollern dynasty and to that of the military autocracy, whose feudalism is modernized only in so far as is necessary to maintain its authority and enable it to mold all Germany into an efficient war machine."

"A successful war," says Mr. Belmont, "might prolong the existence of such a system. Unsuccessful war will mean its what Bernardi calls the downfall of the empire.
It will also mean a triumphant liberation of the spirit and genius of the German people from the yoke of Prussian absolutism."

"When millions of men, returning from lost battles and disastrous campaigns, realize the futility of the efforts into which they have been led against liberty-loving nations, free institutions and the republicanism of Europe, they will be found in revolt against a government based upon the theory of the divine right. The theory is not yet abandoned in Central Europe, where the alliance of the two Emperors harks back to the Holy Alliance of their predecessors."

RIOTS IN TURKS CAPITAL

Rulers Reported To Have Lost Support of Population

Naples, July 19.—A number of Turkish refugees who arrived here Saturday state that conditions in Constantinople are growing worse daily. The Young Turks have lost the support and sympathy of the population, they declare, and are trying to regain it by the announcement of victories over the Allies. The price of commodities has become prohibitive and riots have occurred which were quelled only after bloodshed.
The neutral diplomatic representatives are doing their utmost to prevent the persecution of foreigners.
Missionaries are leaving daily, as anti-Christian outbreaks are feared.

Cairo, July 19.—A European at Constantinople reports that there are nearly 50,000 wounded at Constantinople besides those in Adrianople, Smyrna, Dardanelles and Sea of Marmora. The proportion of killed among the Turks is high. On the other hand, sanitary conditions among the troops are good, although cases of tetanus are not infrequent among the wounded. The heavy casualty lists appear to be the only cause of anxiety at the Porte. To fill the gaps in the Gallipoli army nearly all of the Constantinople police and gendarmarie have been sent to the front.

Eight Persons Drown.

New York, July 19.—Five persons were drowned in or near New York city, and the toll of the mid-summer Sunday casualties also include one death by heat, another death in an automobile accident, a dozen hurt in accidents; a total of forty-four accidents, as reported to the police; six prostrations from the heat, twelve persons taken sick in the street, and one attempted suicide, and five sudden deaths with no cause assigned.

RUSSIANS CHECK
GERMAN DRIVES

Mackensen's Right Defeated, Halting Drive on Warsaw

A FIERCE TUG OF WAR

Centre in Danger From Determined Muscovite Assaults — Desperate Fighting at Przasnysz and Riga.

Petrograd, July 19.—Defeat of General Mackensen's right wing in the great battle south of the Lublin-Cholm railway has at least temporarily checked the new German offensive on Warsaw.

Official dispatches today reported the Germans are rapidly shifting troops from all fronts to the support of Mackensen, whose center is endangered by furious Russian attacks.
Both sides of the German wedge, whose apex rests near Krasnotaf, are being battered in by the re-enforced Slav armies, and continuation of the Russian advance threatens to cut off a large body of German troops.

Desperate fighting around Przasnysz and in the Riga region to the north has resulted in severe losses on both sides in the last twenty-four hours. The war office admits that the Russian retirement still continues at some sections of this front, but military men here see no menace in von Hindenburg's offensive.

On the contrary, the belief prevails in Petrograd that von Hinden-burg's dash from the north is a feint to conceal the major operation of Mackensen in the region south of Lublin. Reports that von Hindenburg is aiming at Warsaw with an army of a million men, the war office believes, have been purposely sent out from Berlin in an attempt to cover up the shifting of troops to the aid of Mackensen.

Since the withdrawal of German divisions from Galicia, the Austrians have made no perceptible gain in positions. Though greatly outnumbered at several portions of southeastern front, the Russian troops have had no difficulty in beamhmt have had no difficulty in beating back Austrian attacks.

London, July 19.—The Russian front running from the Baltic in the north to Bessarabia in the south, a distance of nearly 1,000 miles, is being subjected to violent attacks by the Germans and Austrians, and in places, according to the German official report, has been pierced.

In the Baltic provinces, General von Buelow, who is using large forces of cavalry, has crossed the Windau river and is moving toward Riga. In the Przasnysz district Field Marshall von Hindenburg, who is making his fourth attempt to reach Warsaw, has twice broken the Russian lines and compelled the defenders to retire toward the Narew river.

In Southern Poland, after a period of inactivity, Field Marshal von Mackensen is again on the move, and claims to have captured some Russian advanced positions, which stood between him and his objective, the Lublin-Cholm Railway.

Simultaneously with these attacks, which are the main ones, the Austro-German armies are on the offensive west of the Vistula river, in Central Poland, and along the Dniester river, in Galicia. As was the case in the drive through Western Galicia, the Russians are fighting stubbornly, and on occasions are turning and delivering vicious blows at their opponents.
But whether they will be able to hold their respective lines is problematical.

With the enormous number of German troops being used for the offensive in the east—the greatest movement of the kind ever undertaken in the history of war—the military critics here do not look for any events of outstanding importance in the west for some time to come. The official reports show that thus far, at any rate, no important move has been undertaken by either side. There have been artillery engagements all along the front and a few infantry attacks but they were infinitesimal in comparison with the operations in the east.

Rome, July 19.—Aerial warfare was a phase of the Italo-Austrian war is assuming important proportions. During the past 24 hours the Italian port city of Bari, on the Adriatic, has been under bombardment by Austrian aeroplanes, and Italian airships have inflicted considerable damage on the Austrian fortifications of Goriz.

Two Italian airships carried out the raid on Gorizia and the Austrian camps on the northern slope of Man-te Sam Michele in the Carso region.
Both returned safely after being subjected to severe cannonading by the Austrian batteries.

BATHERS DROWN.

Two Seized By Cramps, Sink Before Help Can Reach Them.

Allentown, Pa., July 19.—Two drownings occurred in Lehigh county, yesterday, as the result of heat wave bathing. The first victim, James Henricky, 19 years old, of Ironton, after eating a heavy dinner accompanied two companions to an abandoned ore bed, and overheated, jumped into the water and disappeared. After grappling two hours, friends recovered the body in 60 feet of water.

Later in the afternoon, Urmo Uhrland, 23 years old, went swimming in the dam at Emaus, was seized with cramps and before friends could reach him, was drowned. The body was recovered in two hours. Uhrland leaves a family.

Admiral Caperton cabled the Navy

Admiral Caperton is at Cape Hai-

Women Trampled on Car

Long Island City N. Y., July 19.— An overhead feed wire snapped and dropped to the roof of a trolley car of the New York and Queens electric railway here yesterday. The car was crowded.

Flames enveloped the forward end of the car and the passengers pushed and fought their way to the street.
In the panic five were injured. Several women were unconscious from fright when pushed to the pavement.

1,200 Austrian Officers Killed

Rome, July 19.—Twelve hundred Austrian officers including three generals, have been killed since the beginning of the Austro-Italian war, according to estimates made here today.

Buffalo, N. Y. July 19.—Casimir statement to the police in which he confessed to the murder in Blue Island on July 15, 1914, of Jacob

The motive for the crime, the prisoner stated, was to get money which Mielch kept concealed in his house,

NEW MEMBERS OF LEGISLATURE

Strange Faces Expected in Next Gathering of State Assembly

OLD MEN TO DROP OUT

Some Senators and Delegates Will Have no Opposition at the Next General Election.

Richmond, July 19.—From a list of candidates for nomination as members of the State Senate and the House of Delegates, in the Democratic primary on August 3 it appears that there will be a large number of new faces in the next General Assembly, which convenes in January. In the great majority of counties and senatorial districts where candidates have not been declared the nominees without opposition the Democratic voters will make the nominations next month. In a few instances primaries will be held in September, and in some few counties the convention system still prevails.

Fifteen members of the present Senate have been renominated without opposition, but from the other twenty-four districts the candidates will be practically all new men. Several of the latter have already been declared the nominee.

The same condition prevails among the personnel of the candidates for the House of Delegates, and the indications are that a majority of this branch will be composed of new men.
Many of the delegates who were prominent in the House during the regular and extraordinary sessions of the last General Assembly will not come back.

The advocates of prohibition will have a safe working majority in the House, and the indications are that a majority of the Senate will be composed of men pledged to the enactment of such laws as will make prohibition as effective as possible in the State after November 1, 1916. In other words, there is no doubt but that the framing of the statutes looking to the enforcement of the anti-liquor verdict of the voters of the State will be "in the hands of the friends of prohibition," despite the pleas of the anti-saloon forces that there is danger that the will of the people will be defeated by unfavorable legislation.

WOMEN IN WAR WORK.

Germans Systematically Train Them for Industrial Service.

Zurich, July 19.—Owing to the shortage of men in the Tyrol the military authorities of Innsbruck have appealed to all Tyrolese communes to enroll and train women and girls for fire department service. Considerable numbers of women are already being trained, especially in the use of the hose and in first aid.

In Germany the use of women workers in the factories has been highly systematized. Forty per cent of the high explosive makers and shell packers are women. 50 per cent of the makers of tent, haversack and similar equipment belong to the same sex, and in the manufacture of tinned meats and preserves 75 per cent of those employed are females.

BOYS REACH THE CAMP

Alexandria Light Infantry Now Enjoying Sea Breeze at Virginia Beach

Reports circulated in this city yesterday afternoon and last night that the train carrying the members of the Alexandria Light Infantry from Alexandria to Norfolk had been wrecked and a large number of the soldiers killed or injured was credited by a large number of people here, and caused no little apprehension. It was later known that no accident had befallen the men, but the rumor had gained such propensities that it was a long time before it could be downed.

Forty members of Company G, First regiment of Virginia Volunteers, made the trip yesterday to Norfolk, leaving this city at 7:30 a. m. and from Norfolk going out to Virginia Beach where they are attending the annual summer encampment of the Virginia militia. Captain William M. King is in charge of the local guard.

A dispatch from the state rifle range at Virginia Beach, says: Nothing spectacular marked the arrival here yesterday of the First Virginia Infantry, the initial unit of the State military force to undertake the annual tour of duty.

It required three special trains to bring in the regiment. The first train to arrive carried the Third Battalion comprising the Danville and Lynchburg and the two Staunton companies. It reached the camp site at 2 o'clock and was under canvas before the arrival of regimental headquarters and the Second Battalion, comprising the Charlottesville, Alexandria, Covington and Fredericksburg companies. The Richmond Grays, First Battalion, reached the camp at 4:50 o'clock, quickly detrained and was prepared for the night before retreat. Particular attention had been paid to the mess arrangements and a fair meal was served before night to each of the twelve companies.

Each of the twelve companies has in excess of the twenty enlisted men and two officers required by orders while some of the companies particularly the Richmond commands, have nearly doubled the required quota.

The camp is an ideal one, in spite of the bad reputation it sustained two years ago, when it was flooded.

CASE DISMISSED.

Judge Caton Decides That Suit Against German is Civil One.

Albert Peaczke, a German fruit dealer of upper King street, was brought into police court this morning to answer a charge brought by Paul Coperre, an Italian, that he had obtained thirty dollars under false pretenses. The case arose over a disagreement between the two men when the Italian found that Peaczke owed debts on a fruitstand which he had sold to Coperre. The debts were in excess of the amount paid for the stand by the Italian. The case was dismissed by Judge Caton on the ground that it was purely civil and not a criminal case.

Attorney Robinson Moncure represented the complainant and Robley D. Brumback, the defendant.

RETAIL MERCHANTS

Organization Will Meet Tonight to Receive Report of Committee

Members of the Retail Merchants' Association will meet tonight in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce to review the report of their committee which has been working jointly with a committee of five other local business men concerning the advisability of taking legal action to test the constitutionality of the new law for assessing the merchants on the amount of their purchases.

The clause of the new tax law to which the local merchants object is that requiring them to make up the difference between the amount of their purchases for the past five years and the amount as reported to the commissioner of revenue. Members of the local association contributed five dollars each at the meeting last Thursday to defray legal expenses that would arise should the committee recommend that such steps be taken.

The members of the committee have been conferring with H. Noel Garner, counsel for the association, and it is expected that they may talk on the subject tonight. The legal aspect of the law will be explained by the committee and the chances of the merchants winning their suit in case a test case should be brought before the courts. The suit would in all probability finally come up before the court of appeals for the state. Before any such steps can be taken, however, it is necessary for the merchants to ascertain clearly the legal view upon the matter and other facts concerning the announcement of the state authorities.

About fifty members are expected at the meeting of the association to night at 7:30 o'clock. J. W. Monroe, president, will preside.

Bunyan in his "Pilgrim's Progress" describes "Christian" passing through the "Valley of the Shadow of Death," presumably alone. As he treads the narrow and dismal path he hears cries similar to those he is uttering, and takes on courage when he realizes others are passing through tribulation similar to his own.

At the close of the civil war the southern states were at the mercy of carpetbaggers and adventurers, backed up by federal bayonets. In order to get back into the union the people of the down-trodden section were compelled to eat crow for a time. Virginia, which had suffered greatly from the ravages of war, had a constitution virtually foisted upon her. The instrument bore the name of the "Underwood Constitution." It was the best we could get at the time, and all save two sections, which disfranchised persons who had aided or sympathized with the late Southern Confederacy, was adopted by a popular vote.

The affairs of the state proceeded smoothly for years, as it was known that the people had the power to frame another constitution at the proper time. This was done several years ago. The Underwood Constitution had been submitted to the people for ratification, but that under which the commonwealth is now proceeding was "declared," the people having been given no say in the matter.

The instrument was a disappointment from the first, as have been many laws adopted by the Legislature in pursuance thereof. The multiplication of offices has caused general protest.

Maryland is suffering from conditions similar to those which are annoying Virginia. Officials of the sister commonwealth are not leaving any stone unturned in their determination to collect every cent possible from the long-suffering tax-payer. In the meantime offices have been multiplied, many of which are regarded as useless. The Baltimore Sun this morning contained a suggestive cartoon. The words "Sapping its Vitality" which appear over the picture tell the story. Maryland is represented by a tree from the trunk of which a number of "suckers" are protruding. They bear the words "useless offices." The tax-payer is standing in front of the tree surveying the offshoots and observing, "These suckers will have to come off if that tree is ever going to bear a full crop."

The "Goddess of Liberty," in all her defiance, still poses on our coat of arms, but her own sons have thoughtless deprived her of some of her locks in recent years.

GERMANY SUFFERS FROM WAR.

Notwithstanding the attempts on the part of the Kaiser to keep the world at large ignorant of true conditions in Germany, something significant occasionally slips by the censor. A dispatch today from the Fatherland shows that the appeal recently published by the socialist democrats is arousing no little interest, and that many of the Kaiser's subjects are clamoring for peace.

The Baltimore American says: "In an article that has been strangely uncensored, the socialist paper Vorwarts, as cited in the London Daily Chronicle, gives a vivid picture of the drama of the war that is being enacted in the capital of Germany. It says that the awful drama is being enacted in the homes of the people and felt with force enough to warn them that a gigantic process is at work in the bosom of time and that its convulsions will shake the daily life to its foundations."

"The picture is presented of women doing the multitude of services that prior to the war only a person deemed would have thought of intrusting to them; of the streets with civilian males in the minority and with gray-bearded fathers and underaged youths, their sons, being led about wounded. Stores are closed and cobwebs are upon the barred windows and doors of the public houses. Everywhere the spirit of gloom broods and the outlook for the future is darkened by the damp of death. The pall of the smoke of the battlefield is reflected in the spirits of the people."

"This picture is very different from those sent out from official sources. It accounts for the desperate eagerness to have the food embargo lifted and an embargo on arms from America proclaimed. Germany is doing deeds of valor upon the fields of strife, but the cost at home is beyond all calculation. The picture of the true distress of the people awakens the profoundest commiseration of Americans whose ties of sympathy for the afflicted are always strong but in the case of the suffering Germans are most acute. What a pity it is that no one who has the voice to do so does not dare to say that the war must close before the ragged remnants of the nations will be all that is left to testify to the war's insane conception and prosecution."

GERMAN
PURPOSES.

President Wilson returned to Washington today after his short vacation in New Hampshire. His new secretary of state has been busy putting in shape a reply to Germany's very unsatisfactory answer to this government's demand for the better protection of American citizens and to guarantee that the Lusitania horror shall never be repeated. Yet while this reply is under consideration Germany, through one of its submarine commanders, seeks to send the Cunard steamer Orduna to the bottom with the sacrifice of more American lives.

The Baltimore American says that with a government that is following out such a policy as this it is not easy to deal. Germany's replies have been anything but frank. They have simply been written with the hope that by playing for time Germany can turn public opinion in this country in its favor or force action by the United States that would involve this country in serious trouble with England. In other words, Germany is trying to use the United States as a club to hit Great Britain.

President Wilson knows this well and he knows American sentiment regarding it.

If the Germans are getting war wearied the United States will leap at the opportunity to seeking to secure any kind of basis for consultation between the powers at war, with the prospect for widening of the conversations to include terms of peace agreement. But this is all, absolutely all, this country will undertake. It will not and cannot be induced to intervene in the prevailing war policies of the powers except as these outrage its own rights or offend humanity.

NEWS OF THE DAY

It is not impossible that Sweden will enter the European war according to dispatches from London.

A ministerial order has been issued by Bulgaria definitely suspending railway communication with Turkey.

A large whale was sighted off the Island of Gorgona, opposite Pises, a day or two ago. It was mistaken for a hostile submarine and was shelled and killed by an Italian destroyer.

Two young women and three men were drowned together yesterday while bathing in Lake Michigan near Chicago. An undercurrent swept them into a deep hole.

Three persons were killed yesterday by lightning when one of the most severe thunder and rain storms in recent years passed over St. Louis and vicinity.

During the month of June, 1,141 German and Austrian officers and 60,848 men arrived at Kev as prisoners of war. Of the men more than 10,000 were Germans.

Two men were killed and five others seriously injured in a collision between a railway motorcar and a switch engine near Boone Grove, Ind., yesterday.

The Cunard liner Orduna, from Liverpool to New York with 227 passengers, including 22 Americans, was attacked without warning by a German submarine on the morning of July 9. The liner escaped.

It is said that an Austro-German ultimatum to Roumania is being prepared. It is reported that large bodies of the Teutonic troops are massing on the Roumanian frontier to give emphasis to the ultimatum, which it is declared will demand unimpeded transit for munitions of war.

It is stated that the United States Fuel Supply Company, which was purchased by the Columbia Gas and Electric Company a short time ago, will soon commence to build pipe lines from Charleston, W. Va., to Washington and Baltimore, supplying those cities with natural gas from its West Virginia wells.

A series of conferences in Bridgeport, Conn., and in New York have resulted in the announcement that the general strike of machinists employed by the Remington arms and Ammunition Company would not begin today, the time set for the walk-out.

It is reported that the German government will issue an order prohibiting the export of all German beer. The motive suggested is that production already has been reduced by the war to 60 per cent of the normal volume and that about 20 per cent of this is taken beforehand for the army.

R. Ross Perry, for many years a leader of the District of Columbia bar, shot himself in the head shortly after noon Saturday while sitting alone in his office in the Fendall building, at the corner of John Marshall place and D street. He was rushed to the Emergency Hospital, where he died.

Charles L. Pafford, 24, a clerk in the Treasury Department, living at Clark's Station, Va., was drowned in the Potomac River yesterday above Aqueduct Bridge. Pafford was swimming alone at the time. George Washington, a 10 year old colored boy, was drowned in the Potomac off Ninth street, Washington, while swimming yesterday.

Bathing yesterday in the Conewago creek near York, Pa., Lewis Delson, 22 years old, was attacked with cramps and drowned. His bride of only a few weeks witnessed his death. She attempted to jump into the stream and end her own life when she learned her husband was dead. It is said he plunged into the stream while overheated.

Two girls were killed and eight other young women and men seriously injured yesterday when the touring automobile in which they were riding swerved and turned turtle at the river drive and Kingsland avenue, near Clifton, N. J. Miss Jessie Beaumont, 19 years old, of Newark, was taken from under the machine dead. Miss Ethel Godwin, of Wheeling, W. Va., was taken out in a serious condition, and she died before she could be taken to St. Mary's Hospital in Passaic.

It is said that the Kaiser's personal losses, owing to the war, are about $20,000,000. These are mainly due to the depreciation of stock in shipping and manufacturing concerns in which he is a large investor. The works of two great beer firms in Saxony and Bavaria in which the Kaiser is one of the principal stockholders are closed down. The Kings of Bavaria, Saxony and Wurttemberg, and the Grand Duke of Baden, as well as other German princes, also have lost heavily.

The first train from Vera Cruz to Mexico City, dispatched from the seaport town on Wednesday, was blown up near Apizaca and three cars crowded with soldiers were blown to atoms, 35 foreigners were killed, and many other passengers were injured.

A second train was dispatched on the following day, but this, too, met with disaster. Bandits, presumably members of the shattered Zapatista force which was driven from Mexico City by General Obregon, held up and robbed the train, subsequently cutting all lines of communication.

VIRGINIA NEWS

Two colored boys were drowned while swimming in the James river at Richmond yesterday.

The most devastating, destructive drought ever experienced in Northern Virginia is sweeping over the Shenandoah Valley.

An unidentified colored man was killed and an unidentified colored woman lost both legs at Seventeenth and Dock streets, Richmond, early yesterday when they were struck presumably by a shifting engine.

John Phillips, colored, 32 years old, an employee of the Southern Railway, was shot three times and almost instantly killed in Richmond Saturday night by Henry Ebon, colored. Ebon was locked up.

Coming down a grade, a large touring car suddenly left Shenandoah Valley pike late Saturday near Fishers Hill, Shenandoah County, plunged into a ditch and turned over, killing instantly Mrs. Koehler, wife of Frederick W. Koehler, a wealthy manufacturer of Sharon, Pa.

R. B. Slater, aged 60 years, a widely known merchant and wood dealer, was struck by lightning and instantly killed while standing on the porch of his home at Toms Saturday afternoon. Mr. Slater had been sitting in the house watching the progress of a slight electrical storm, and as he stepped through a doorway on to the back porch the lightning struck him.

The convention of the Virginia Rural Carriers' Association, which was in session in Lynchburg two days last week, adjourned to meet next year in Danville. Resolutions were passed in favor of national and state aid in building and maintaining post roads. A memorial to the Virginia delegation in Congress was adopted asking federal aid and co-operation in the supervision and inspection of public roads and suggesting that a tax be placed on all vehicles.

Members of the State Democratic Committee who went to Richmond Saturday to attend the meeting called by Chairman Ellyson to consider the Norfolk county case have no special fondness for William Jennings Bryan, late Secretary of State. On the other hand, every member seen who was asked to talk, expressed the opinion that President Wilson made good in every way, and they were of the opinion that he would be nominated to succeed himself and that he would be re-elected President in 1916.

As a result of half a dozen fines imposed in the police court during the week, Lynchburg was shut up so tight yesterday that the only things purchasable were a meal at a hotel or restaurant and a newspaper. Until recently soda water, tobacco and bionbons could be had from drug stores, restaurants or hotels, but police started a campaign looking to enforcement of the city ordinance which is much more drastic than the State code. This has resulted in an agreement between druggists for short Sunday hours, and when open these stores sell only drugs.

Morgan Armstrong, of the McDowell neighborhood, of Highland County, has been arrested on complaint of his daughter. Armstrong alleges that a certain young man whom he is responsible for his daughter's condition. In her charges against her father, the daughter alleges that he is guilty of similar crimes against his younger daughters, of but 11 or 12 years of age.

Mrs. Mattie Reed Lamb, wife of Captain John Lamb, of Richmond, former member of Congress from the Third Virginia District, died suddenly yesterday at noon at Millboro, Bath County, where she and her husband had gone three weeks ago to spend the remainder of the summer. Mrs. Lamb was a daughter of the late Rev. Anderson Wade, D. D., for thirty years rector of Westover Episcopal Church, in Charles City County.

AIMED AT POWDER WORKS.

Watchmen at Du Pont Plant at Gibbstown Find Dynamite Scattered About Magazine.

Paulsboro, N. J., July 19.—The fact that an army of watchmen are on duty day and night at the Repaunc plant of the E. I. DuPont de Nemours Powder Works at Gibbstown, probably saved the company from a heavy loss early yesterday morning.

While one of the watchmen was patrolling his beat in the region of several huge magazines which were filled with tons of dynamite, he discovered that the lock on one of the magazines had been broken off and the door was standing open. He summoned aid and an investigation revealed that some one had been at work in the magazine.

Boxes of dynamite were scattered over the floor and several had been broken open. After satisfying themselves that no one was hiding within the building the watchmen continued their search of the outside and were about to give up when one of them noticed the head of a man appear above the tall grass which surrounds the building. They started in the direction and the man ran. The watchmen pursued him, but were unable to capture him and he escaped in the darkness.

The magazine is located in a meadow about one mile from the main office building and it is believed that the attempt was made by spies who are causing much alarm about the Du Pont plants throughout the country and that plans were being made for the destruction of the building. It is the general opinion here that more than one man was implicated, as it would have been impossible for one man to remove a lock such as the one on the magazine.

ECHO OF HATFIELD-MCCOYS.

Vendetta Threatens Peace of West Virginia Mountain Town.

Logan, W. Va., July 19.—The climax of a period of outlawry in which a number of Hatfields, of the clan that engaged in the notorious Hatfield-McCoy feud a number of years ago, and which threatened another feud with the Hatfields on one side, resulted in the cutting to pieces of Howard Hatfield, aged 25, brother of Policeman Hilbert Hatfield, and the serious injury of a number of others. Hatfield is dead and Cal Thompson, also frightfully cut, is dying. Four men engaged in a knife battle in the street. George Smith, himself badly cut, is in jail, and Officer John E. Doody was badly injured. The police charge the men had been gambling.

While local officials are exerting every effort to prevent a breaking out of another feud to rival that of the famous old Hatfield-McCoy days, it is feared that the end is not yet. The Hatfield family is very prominent in this section and are known as quick tempered men who never have hesitated to avenge even fancied insults.

$75,000 IN BAD MONEY SEIZED

Spurious Bonds Also Found And Five Men Arrested.

Chicago, July 19.—Counterfeit money of a face value of nearly $75,000, alleged counterfeit Minnesota State bonds, running up to $25,000, and dies, plates, engraving tools and chemicals used by a gang of counterfeiters believed to have operated on a large scale fell into the hands of the police yesterday.

Five men were arrested, Samuel Robbins, the police reported said the money was made in Duluth, Minn., and confessed that he was the leader. He hired two men, whose names were withheld, to help. The other two, John Jerkowitz and Benjamin Saltzman, were said by Robbins to have been employed in passing the currency, according to the police.

The officers found $2,000 in genuine $1 bills, which had been raised, or were being raised, to the $5 denomination.

The men were about to move from their rooming house, but the landlady to whom they owed money, would not let them take a heavy trunk in which the bogus money was found. There was trouble over this and the police were called.

The alleged counterfeiters had left, but the weight of the trunk prompted the detectives to look inside. Then they got a photograph of four of the men in bathing suits and located them in a Turkish bath.

Angered, it is said, because she reprimanded him for quarreling with his wife and making so much noise that she could not sleep, Dick Taylor early yesterday afternoon in Richmond shot and severely wounded his cousin, Della Booker, and then made his escape.
